

McDonald's Contribution to North Carolina

In communities across the state, McDonald's U.S. system is making a contribution – to the economy, to the workforce, and to help support the work of Ronald McDonald House Charities® (RMHC).

$61M

Total Supplier Purchases

$214M

Experience of the Future System Investments in Restaurants

56M

Pounds of pork purchased in 2018 from suppliers in the state of North Carolina

59,382

Children and families served by local RMHC Chapters

37,499

Employed*

68

McDonald's local owner operator entities in North Carolina

489

McDonald's restaurants in North Carolina

* Employment estimates include the number of employees in company-owned and franchisee-owned restaurants. Estimates are based on the average number of employees working in company-owned restaurants.

 Number reflects children and families served as reported by local RMHC Chapters in 2018 annual reporting to RMHC, Inc.

 Estimated investments made by franchisees and the company in 2018-2019.

North Carolina Supplies the McDonald's U.S. System

In 2018, the McDonald's system* purchased the following amount of product from your state.

3,435,000
Apples (LBS)

847,000
Blueberries (LBS)

39,658,000
Fiber (LBS)

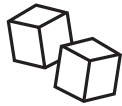

586,000
Milk (GAL)

56,303,000
Pork (LBS)

793,000
Soybean Oil (LBS)

865,000
Sugar (LBS)

274,000
Tomatoes (LBS)